The Class of 1963 dedicates this yearbook to Mrs. Eretha Woodard . . . who, because of her experience in the Human Engineering Laboratory and in her devotion to the students of Charlotte High School, is creating a living memory which shall not easily be forgotten.

Charlotte Public Schools
Charlotte, N.C.
Clark Mumma, Superintendent of Schools

1963

Dear Students:

This book is a record of events that makes me proud of our student body. Our athletes are respected throughout the league for fighting hard to win but always demonstrating good sportsmanship. On numerous occasions people have complimented me on your behavior at school events and on trips away from home. Your performance in clubs and Student Council reflect the sound judgment that comes from a growing awareness that good citizenship is the result of self-discipline. On the whole, the records show you to be continuously striving for high academic goals.

I congratulate the seniors on the successful completion of four years of work, but I congratulate all of you for maintaining the high ideals of scholarship and citizenship that have for years been a tradition at Charlotte High School.

Sincerely,

Clark Mumma

As the sun sets early in the west and spreads its radiant beams through the falling leaves, our high school is once more filled with the students and teachers, the faces and voices so familiar. Seventh graders anticipate the day they will be upperclassmen, and the seniors begin their last years in these halls. To the graduates the fall sports, the marching band, the numerous activities will soon become memories. These are the things the Junior High inherits; these are the things the Seniors will leave behind.

Mr. Muma

Mr. Squibb, Mr. Muma, Mr. Young

Mr. Bryan, Mr. Combs

Handling a budget of over a million dollars annually, the Charlotte Board of Education is the nucleus of our school system. This year the Board presented plans for Charlotte's new high school to the voters, and received their overwhelming approval.

The members of the Board of Education are President, Frank Morgan; Secretary, Bart Rypstra; Treasurer, Harold Weaver; Trustees, E. Jack Young, Sam Combs, Bud Squibb, Bruce Bryan; and Superintendent, Clark Muma

Mr. Morgan, Mr. Weaver,
Mr. Rypstra

In addition to his duties during the school year, principal John B. Smith also works in the summer months planning student's schedules and adjusting the courses to meet the next year's needs

Many are the tasks of the assistant principal. Advisor to the Student Council, coordinator of assemblies, planner and organizer of dances, and supervisor of the English Department are but a few of the duties Mr. John Bogner has

Mr. John B. Smith and Mr. John Bogner discuss activities' funds

The Faculty

A high school can only be as good as those who teach in its classrooms. The students of Charlotte can indeed be thankful for the guidance they have been given, and proud of the instruction they have received in their quest for knowledge

Mrs. Eretha Woodard and Mr. Robert Piersma help the senior high students in planning their futures and in offering occupational test.

Mr. Darrell Cook aids the junior high students in planning their High School curriculum.

The office workers assist the administration and teachers in the efficient running of the school. Mrs. Lorraine Allen is the bookkeeper for the school activities. Mrs. Marilyn Royston is the school's secretary. Mrs. Evelyn Fischer is Mr. Muma's secretary. Mr. Thomas McKenna does the accounting for the school, and Mrs. Cele St. John assists in the math department.

ORANGE & BLACK

Vol. 37

Charlotte High School, Dec. 10, 1962

No. 8

Serving the students of Charlotte High School since 1918.

Learning the technique of printing a good and interesting newspaper is essential to the members of the Journalism Class, for it is they who must prepare the twenty-seven issues, of the Orange and Black, the Charlotte High School Newspaper.

Terry Brock explains to Judy Kuehn how a cut is made.

As Tom Fullerton and Chuck Grundstrom make corrections and Jane Kelly reads copy, Judy Kuehn, Editor Reyes Smith, and Carol Walker give helpful suggestions.

Reporters and editors spend hours every week collecting news items and writing stories, then proofreading all the stories before finishing a single issue of the Orange and Black.

Tom Fullerton and Joy Woodhams type up stories for the Orange and Black.

As advisor Robert Sikenga, Lois Thompson, and Joy Woodhams look on, Juan Romagosa and Perry Brock write copy and read proof.

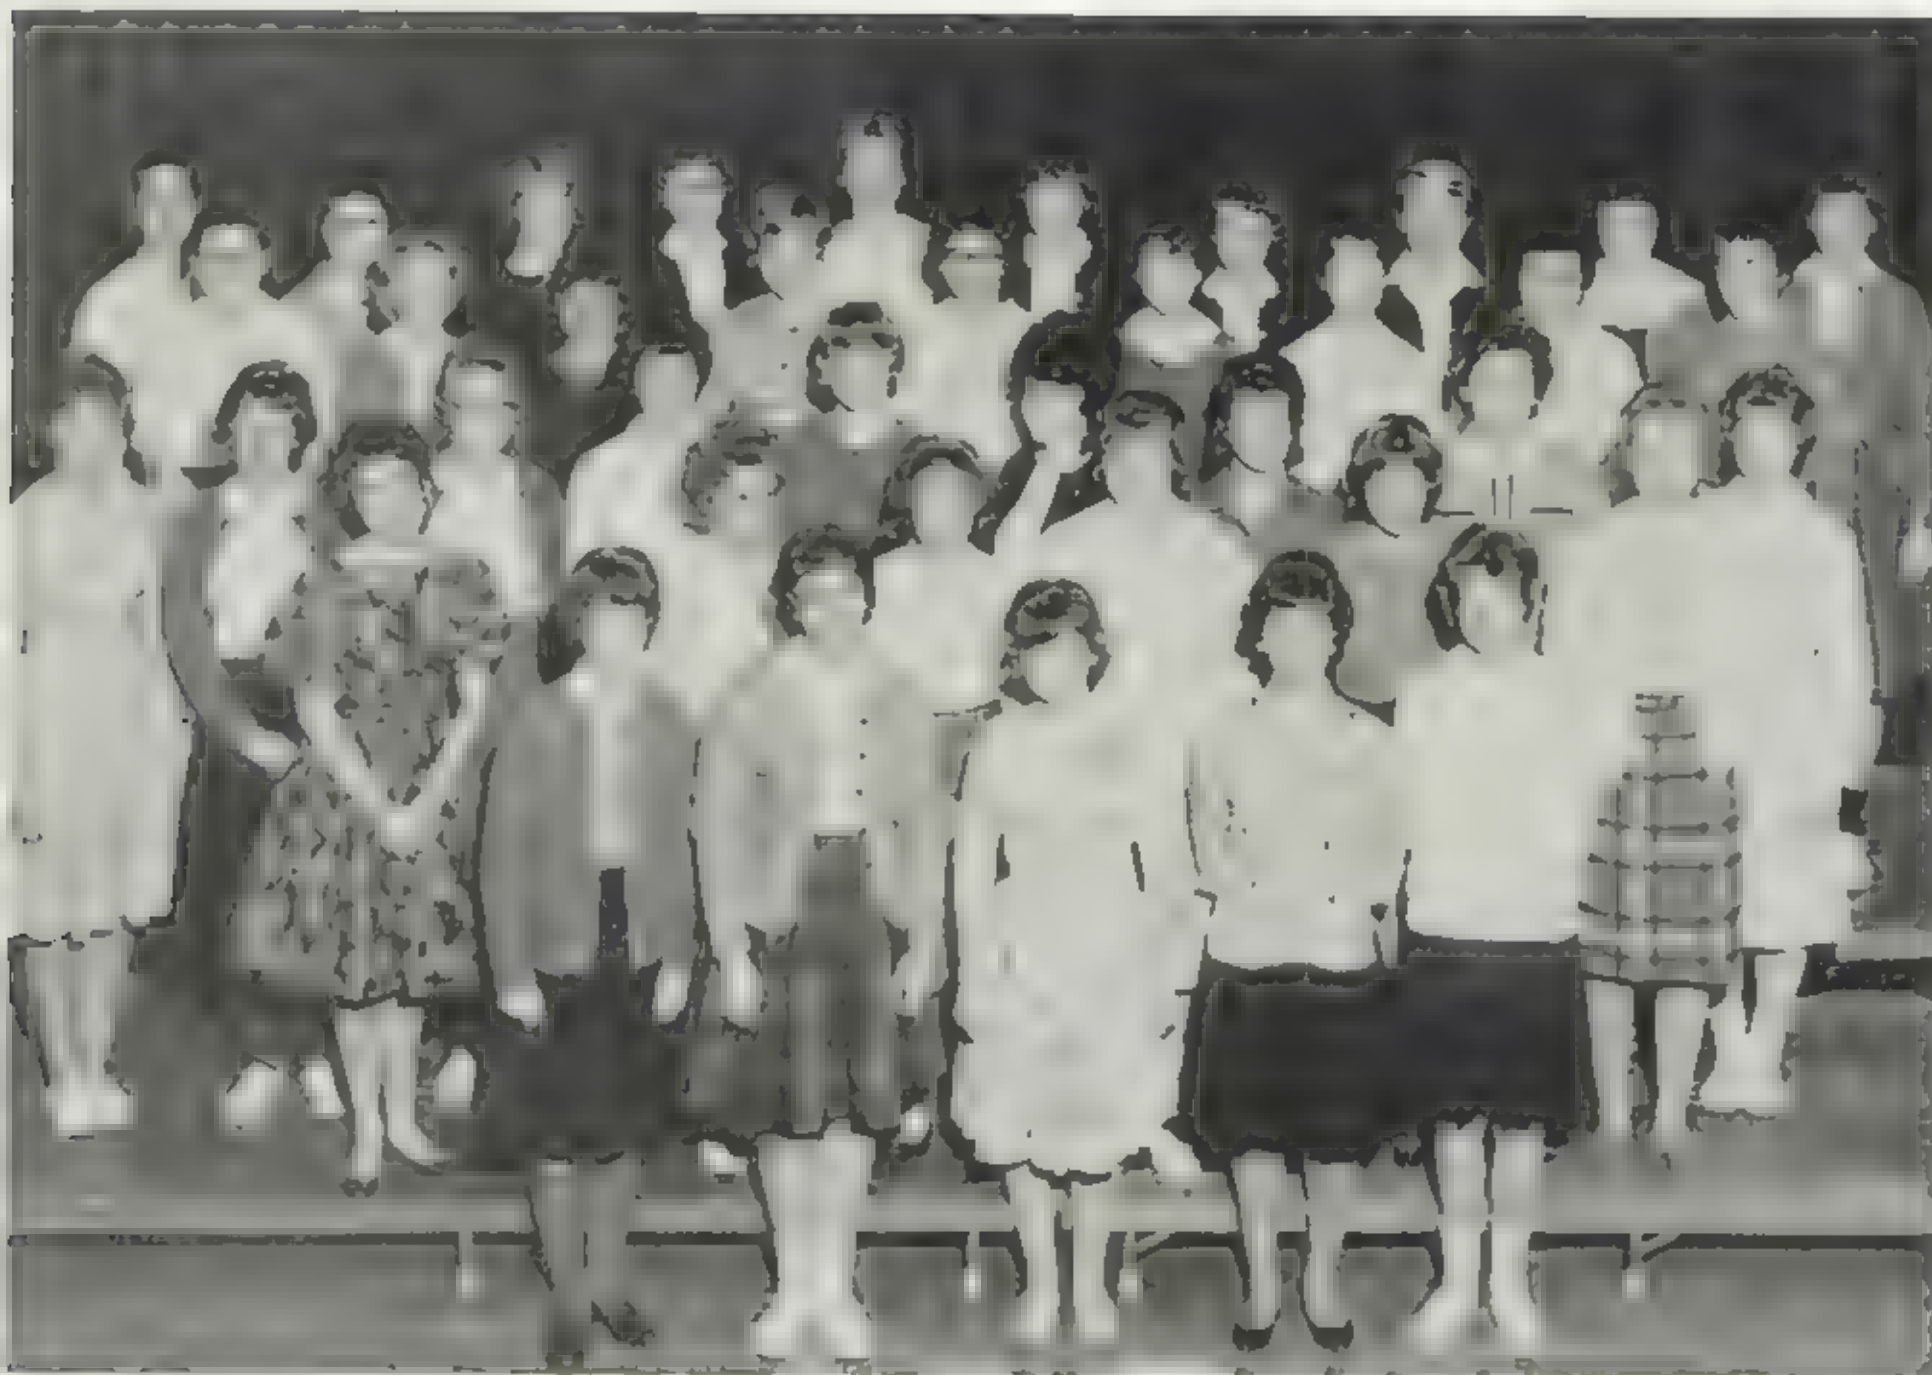

Future Business Leaders

Under the leadership of the C.H.S. business teachers, Mr. Robert Schrader, Miss Bonnie Sunday, and Miss Judy Dargitz, members of the Future Business Leaders studied new techniques in business administration.

QUEEN KAREN MARRY

Donna Reiter Reigns as Football Homecoming Queen

To complete Donna's court a lovely Queen was chosen by each class. Representing the Freshman class was Millie Shiraef; chosen by the Sophomores was Linda Stooks; the selection of the Junior class was Karen Marry.

Each occupied a place of honor at the Homecoming dance with the Senior Homecoming Queen Donna Reiter.

Donna Reiter, in all her regal beauty, was crowned queen of the 1962 football season during halftime of the homecoming game with Hastings.

Escorted by Jim Perry and crowned by co-captains Al Borgman and Gary Rochester, Donna later reigned over the festivities of the Homecoming dance.

W I N T E R

Now the earth is covered with snow and cold days have descended upon the high school. The curriculum has been well established, and all anxiously await the oncoming Christmas Holiday. Long months of school lie ahead. No longer are shouts and cheers heard from the football field; for now that winter has driven the spectators indoors, action on the basketball court overshadows the frozen gridiron. Winter has brought to an end the pleasant days of autumn, and all students are resolved to the hard work which lies before them.

JIM PERRY

Posting an 11-1 league record, the Charlotte Oriole basketball team captured the West Central league championship for the first time in twelve years. With a 14-1 overall mark, the Oriole cagers ended one of the finest seasons ever recorded at Charlotte.

Wrestlers Post 5-5-1 Record

Under the direction of Coach Bill Taft, the Oriole Grapplers went on to a good season, winning five and tying one of their eleven contests. Losing only a few regulars by graduation, the future seems to hold better things in store.

Receiving assignments is an important step in the all-School process.

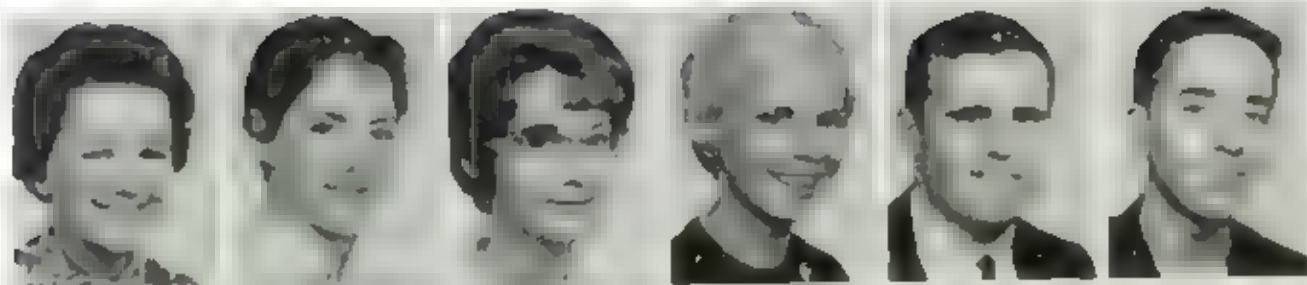

The Youth Grade supports the team by taking an active part in the pep assemblies.

The Juniors under the leadership of the above officers strive to make their Junior year a successful one.

They reached their goal of $1500 in the magazine sales and were very excited about the success of their Junior Play: "My Three Angels." Finally after careful planning and preparation, the Juniors honored the Seniors with a long remembered Prom

Class of 1964 Presents:

Before each performance make-up artists transformed juniors into the characters of the play

In the opening scene the exuberant Mme Paro requests a bottle of Cognac (on credit of course)

"Kill me but spare them! That's all I ask."
Felix seems to misunderstand that Alfred has just saved Marie Louise from drowning.

My Three Angels

poor Marie Louise, the letter from Paul seems to have shaken her up a bit!

The three angels as they ascend the ladder to continue repairing the roof at the end of the play.

The final curtain call . . . the applause . . . the cast party . . . and then it's all over.

With the newness of life after the long period of hibernation comes the busyness and excitement of bringing the life of Charlotte High School to an end.

Spring training begins for the track, baseball and tennis teams. To many students spring means a time to recall all the fond memories of the year.

For the sophomores there is the excitement of receiving class rings. The juniors are busily working on the last minute preparations for the Prom and the seniors have at last turned all their efforts toward the final goal of graduation.

Journalism Department Presents

1963 Carnival Queens

Chosen by the student body to reign as Queen for the Journalism Carnival was vivacious Senior Jan Putman. Jan's court was made up of a girl from each class; representing the Freshmen was lovely Tama Rann, chosen by the Sophomores was charming Linda Bradley, and selected to be Junior Queen was pert Linda Page. Crowned during the Carnival main show, the four girls highlighted the evening.

Mike Larsen, Carol Walker Get Top Honors

Michael John Larsen, senior president, with an outstanding scholastic average of 3.9147 is the 1963 Valedictorian. Since his freshman year he has been on the varsity basketball and football teams. He also participated in golf, track, and tennis. Active in Boy Scouts, Mike has earned the rank of Eagle Scout. His junior and senior years have been especially busy. Besides the sports he took part in, he was, in his junior year selected to attend Boys' State. He was an active member of National Honor Society during his last two years at C.H.S. and was also Junior Rotarian. General Motors Institute is included in his plans for the future.

The honor of Salutatorian was achieved by Carol Ann Walker. Besides being an excellent student with an average of 3.8888, she was active in many of the school organizations. Carol was treasurer of National Honor Society and secretary of Future Teachers of America. She has been an assistant leader in Camp Fire Girls. During her junior and senior years she was a delegate to the Model United Nations assembly. Sewing and cooking are two of the hobbies which keep her busy. Carol plans to attend Michigan State University in preparation of a teaching career.

Carol and Mike spend part of their time in the library. Carol seems to find something humorous about the college years ahead of her. Mike must be thinking of food instead of concentrating on his book.

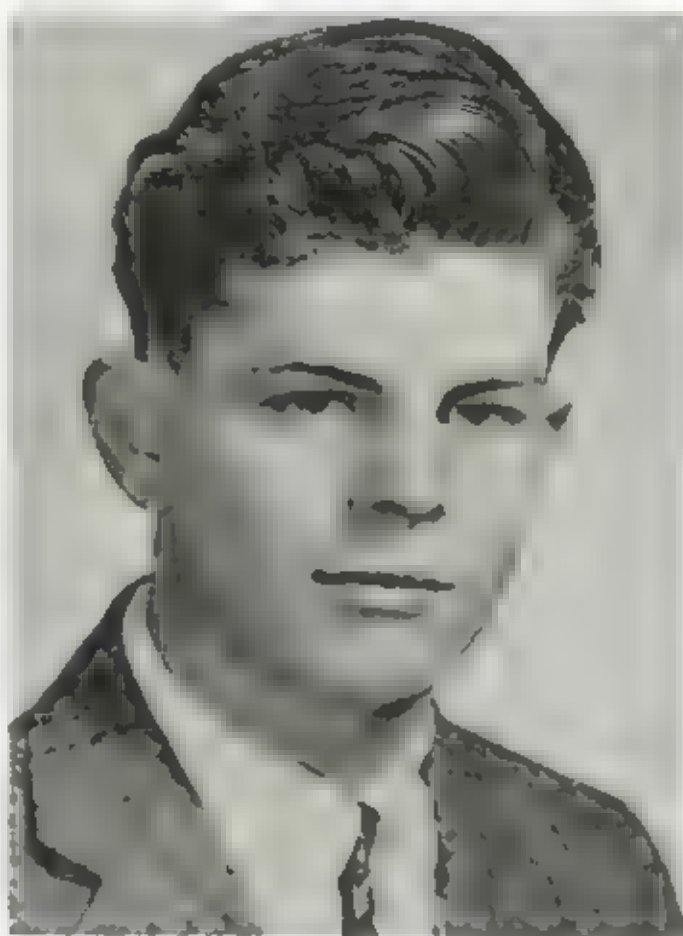

SENIORS

CHARHIAN Staff

The CHARHIAN staff takes pleasure in presenting the 1963 CHARHIAN.

The fourteen members on this year's staff are divided into seven departments: School Life, Photography, Senior, Underclass, Sports, Advertising, and Business.

Working on the underclass and Senior sections are Sandy Kloko, Mary Pawli, Mary Jo Bartolacci, and Mary Jane Loomis.

Paula Cronheim and Carol Mikesell made lay outs for the Freshmen section.

In charge of the finances are Linda Mauney, and Sue Simpson.

Produces 1963 Yearbook

Under the direction of advisor Robert Sikkenga and editor Sylvia Bryan, the various sections were coordinated and presented in the 1963 CHARHIAN.

Layouts for the School Life section of the 1963 yearbook are completed by Penny McGaw and Nancy Lewellyn

Bob Lord and Fay Wilber develop many of the pictures appearing in the CHARHIAN

Editor Sylvia Bryan and Larry Matecki are shown the principles of Photography by the CHARHIAN advisor Mr. Robert Sikkenga.

Tom Fullerton, our Mayor, calls the Student Council meetings to order . . .

During the school year Tom Fullerton, Mayor at Charlotte High School, guided the Student Council through its functions. Tom worked hard to achieve the projects he planned to benefit the school. Tom feels that the first qualification of a good mayor is a great deal of interest in the school and student body.

. . . and proceeds to the business of the day

SECRETARY

Co-operation between the Mayor and Secretary helps make the Council efficient.

Paul Cronheim, our Secretary, records the minutes of the meeting and composes the correspondence.

Paula Cronheim as Secretary of the Student Council gave the Mayor valuable assistance. Paula feels that the most important qualifications of a good secretary are interest in the job and willingness to devote much time to being an efficient secretary.

Charlotte Public Schools
CHARLES T. M. HIGAN
JOHN B. SMITH HIGH SCHOOL
RICK MEYER SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS
JUNE, 1968

As the Senior Year, the yearbook will always serve as a souvenir to the seniors of the years they spent at Charlotte Public Schools. This book will help them recall the senior year, the last football and basketball games they would play, the prom, the net and graduation. We wish to thank all who contributed their cooperation which helped make the yearbook possible.

JOHN E. SMITH, JR.
